

Brian Johnson, Fiscal Officer

Brian Johnson is Anderson Township's fiscal officer, a position he has held since September 2023. Johnson graduated from Ohio University and the Salmon P. Chase College of Law at Northern Kentucky University. He currently is a senior manager at a trust tax firm and has held positions at a national CPA firm, a national bank and a local CPA firm.

Johnson is a former Internal Revenue Service agent and a former audit manager at the Ohio Auditor of State's Office, where he performed audits on local governments. As a volunteer, Johnson served on the Anderson Township Board of Zoning Appeals before he was appointed fiscal officer. His wife, Amy, teaches first grade at Sherwood Elementary School. They have two children.
